

The Client Advocacy Committee is designed to insure that clients of the Desert AIDS Project are involved as partners in the planning, provision, and evaluation of programs and services. It is central to the operations of D.A.P.

Specifically,
The Client Advocacy Committee:

 Advises and offers suggestions on existing programs

 Assists in the development of new programs

 Reviews issues referred to the committee and provides recommendations

 Monitors and addresses multi-cultural needs and issues

 Serves as a representative of D.A.P with outside programs

If you are interested in serving on the Client Advocacy Committee, simply fill out this application and return it to the reception desk, or send a brief statement of interest to:
